

Convict sentenced to death in witness' slaying

A Miami-Dade judge Monday sentenced Wadada Delhall to death for the killing of an eyewitness in his brother's murder trial.

In June, a jury found Delhall, 31, guilty on all counts: first-degree murder, possession of a firearm in the commission of a felony and possession of a firearm by a convicted felon.

Miami-Dade Circuit Judge Leonard E. Glick followed the recommendation of the jury, which voted 8-4 for the death penalty in the killing of Hubert McCrae.

McCrae, an Opa-locka mechanic, was shot at least 11 times in 2001.
