

Judge sentences William Gregory to die for double murder

William Gregory (April 14, 2011)
Orlando Sentinel
11:08 a.m. EDT, April 14, 2011

Two death sentences were handed down today to a man convicted of killing his former girlfriend and her boyfriend in 2007 in Flagler County.

William Gregory, 28, was given the death sentences in Volusia County circuit court by Judge William A. Parsons, State Attorney's spokeswoman Shannon K. Peters said.

The trial was moved to Volusia County because of pretrial publicity in Flagler County.

Gregory was found guilty of first-degree murder with a firearm in the deaths of Skyler Dawn Meekins, 17, and Daniel Arthur Dyer, 22.

He shot them to death Aug. 21, 2007, at her home, according to court documents.

Gregory fathered a daughter with Meekins, Kyla, who was born in July 2006.